

Juggernaut

Autoheart

Ballistic energies are flooding through my head
As I am lying here remembering your smiling face in the pouring rain
Sucking on a candy cane

I used to look and listen for approaching signs
Because I knew eventually we'd realign and be in harmony
I knew that we would set each other free
(Set each other free)

And I feel euphoric in your arms tonight
And I'm magnified, I feel alive
I can feel it, feel it coming
Like a juggernaut, see it coming
I can feel it, feel it coming over me

We decimated, shook it up and tore apart
All of the urgency then fell into the dark until all that remained
Was particles of Tetracaine

We are ascending up and up in ecstasy
And our imagination's running riot, what you said on New Year's Eve
Reverberates inside of me for days, for days

And I feel euphoric in your arms tonight
And I'm magnified, I feel alive
I can feel it, feel it coming
Like a juggernaut, see it coming
I can feel it, feel it coming over me

I won't be foolish with my mind
(I won't be foolish with my mind)
I won't be reckless with my time
(I won't be reckless with my time)
I can feel it, feel it coming
I can feel it, feel it coming
I won't be hostile with my heart

And I feel euphoric in your arms tonight (in your arms tonight)
And I'm magnified, I feel alive (I feel alive)
I can feel it, feel it coming
Like a juggernaut, see it coming
I can feel it, feel it coming over me
