Autopilot Off

With every sip I taste those days
I slip a little more away
And there's just no time for this, no

I find a hundred things to blame
I swear to God that I'm insane
And there's just no time for this, no

And I pray for a miracle, but I don't know
Yeah I pray for a miracle, but I want more
I want more

"Just calm down, you'll be OK"
Is just a lie I used to say
And there's just no time for this, no

And making up for my mistakes
Is just another pill I have to take
And there's just no time for this, no

And I pray for a miracle, but I don't know
Yeah I pray for a miracle, still I want more
Well I want more
Well I want more

With every sip I taste those days
I slip a little more away
And there's just no time for this, no

I turn the black and white to grey
My special brand of alchemy
And there's just no time for this, no

And I pray for a miracle, but I don't know
Yeah I pray for a miracle, still I want more

It's good to see you again (And I pray for a miracle)
I missed you, my old friend
(Still I want more)
Then I turn away and you turn away
Tonight we'll have these dreams (And I pray for a miracle)
Tonight we'll fall asleep
(Still I want more)

And you turn away and I turn away (I want more)
And you turn away and I turn away (I want more)
And you turn away and I turn away (I want more)
Then you turn away and I turn...
