

Blame

Autumn Hill

If it makes it easier on you
You can point the finger at me
And tell me why this ship is going down,
Why this love is fading out

But I was there and baby you were too
Yeah this fell apart in both of our hands
Now the white flag's gonna wave,
There's nothing left to save

Blame!

You're bout to give it, I'm bout to take it
Yeah we're going down in flames
What can we do, we're only human
Everybody makes mistakes
There's more than enough to go around
Blame!
Who said it first, who did it hurt
What the hell does it change?
Why go there, when I don't care
If you wanna walk away
You just take your things, I'll take the blame

Yeah talk that shit about me to your friends
Tell them it was all a one-way street
No it isn't really fair how we never learned to share

Blame!

You're bout to give it, I'm bout to take it
Yeah we're going down in flames
What can we do, we're only human
Everybody makes mistakes
There's more than enough to go around
Blame!
Who said it first, who did it hurt
What the hell does it change?
Why go there, when I don't care
If you wanna walk away
You just take your things, I'll take the blame

Why don't we forget the way it happened
And just jump ship, leave it all in the past
Instead of drowning in the blame

Girl I'll take the blame
Yeah I'll take the blame

Yeah! Blame!

You're bout to give it, I'm bout to take it
Yeah we're going down in flames
What can we do, we're only human
Everybody makes mistakes
There's more than enough to go around
Blame!
Who said it first, who did it hurt
What the hell does it change?
Why go there, when I don't care

If you wanna walk away
You just take your things, I'll take the blame

Whooooooooaaaa!

Yeah I'll take the blame
Yeah I'll take the blame

Ooooooooooooooooooooo!

Yeah I'll take the blame

Ohh
