

Favourite Mistake

Autumn Hill

I wake up and you're gone again
The bed is warm
I pretend you're still here
I've got your kisses memorized
With you it's always borrowed time
Then you disappear.

How long until my heart breaks?

I feel divided,
I love you but I just can't stay.
I know you're trying to make me believe we're okay
You're perfect, worth it
But somebody's sharing your name
You'll be my favourite mistake.

I close the door quietly
I stayed a while to watch you sleep,
Mornings come
I hate that you belong to him
When I could give you everything
If we'd just run.

How long until my heart breaks?

I feel divided,
I love you but I just can't stay.
I know you're trying to make me believe we're okay
You're perfect, worth it
But somebody's sharing your name
You'll be my favourite mistake.

I feel divided.
I love you but I just can't stay
I know you're trying to make me believe we're okay
You're perfect, worth it,
but somebody's sharing your name.

You'll be my favourite mistake
