

Last Sign of Summer

Ava Inferi

Open up the lid of dreams
Caress its crystal light
Embrace the vision it reveals
A moment of the purest kind

Despair is far beneath this ground
Flying high, leaving me behind
The drums are calling upon me

I hide - the legacy of the witch
The legacy of a queen
I hide myself
Down
The spiralcase leading down
My dreams are gone so my crown
With the last sign of summer

Open up the lid of dreams
Caress its crystal light
Embrace the vision it reveals
A moment of the purest kind

"You are not allowed to break the silence
You'll be judged for what you did
Sorcerer, witch!"
The drums are calling upon me

I hide - the legacy of the witch
The legacy of a queen
I hide myself
Down
The spiralcase leading down
My dreams are gone so my crown
With the last sign of summer

Staring at the horizon
Holding on to dead dreams
Ceremony of shadowdance
Awakes the circle again...

I hide - the legacy of the witch
The legacy of a queen
I hide myself
Down
The spiralcase leading down
My dreams are gone so my crown
With the last sign of summer
