On Somebody

Ava Max

Heartbreak, heartbreak is a motherfucker
I know, I know but I found a way to Deal though, deal though
It took work to get the wheels are moving on, wheels are moving on Can't stay, can't stay on a used lover
I know, I've been better off without
You though, you thought
It took work to get these feelings turning off, feelings turning off

Oh, my, my, my, my, my
I see you moving side to side, side, side, side, side
Two hands on you that aren't mine, mine, mine, mine, mine
You never know how much you're on somebody 'til they're on somebody else
So my, my, my, my, my
I wish my eyes knew how to lie, lie, lie, lie, lie
And tell my body I'll be fine, fine, fine, fine, fine
You never know how much you're on somebody 'til they're on somebody else

Heartbreak, heartbreak is a motherfucker
Lay low, lay low, that's how to they tell you to Let go, letting go went out the window
Soon as I saw you pull up from two

I can feel the break of every wave crash into me (crashing)
Wishing I went somewhere else and left you in my dreams

Oh, my, my, my, my, my
I see you moving side to side, side, side, side, side
Two hands on you that aren't mine, mine, mine, mine, mine
You never know how much you're on somebody 'til they're on somebody else
So my, my, my, my, my
I wish my eyes knew how to lie, lie, lie, lie, lie
And tell my body I'll be fine, fine, fine, fine, fine
You never know how much you're on somebody 'til they're on somebody else

I can feel the break of every wave crash into me
Wishing I went somewhere else and left you in my dreams (haha)

Oh, my, my, my, my, my
I see you moving side to side, side, side, side, side
Two hands on you that aren't mine, mine, mine, mine, mine
You never know how much you're on somebody 'til they're on somebody else
So my, my, my, my, my
I wish my eyes knew how to lie, lie, lie, lie, lie
And tell my body I'll be fine, fine, fine, fine, fine
You never know how much you're on somebody 'til they're on somebody else

Oh, when you're on somebody when you're on somebody
(Oh baby, on somebody else)
Oh, when you're on somebody when you're on somebody
'Til they're on somebody else
