

There's one in the middle
Can we run this toll?
What happens tomorrow
Can never be told
Spray can and a spyderco
It never really hit
Unitl it was written in stone

But we'll try to get by
As soon as there's a chance
To clear our eyes
And we'll finally say goodbye
Inside with pride you survive
Remember, remember

It wasn't time wasted
It wasn't time wasted
It wasn't time wasted
It wasn't time wasted
And we forget
And we forget
And we forget
And we forget

Four a.m. friday
Awaken to a scream
He's not gonna make it
Real it didn't seem
No-don't let go
No-make it through

But we'll try to get by
As soon as there's a chance
To clear our eyes
And we'll finally say goodbye
Inside with pride you survive
Remember, remember

But we'll try to get by
As soon as there's a chance
To clear our eyes
And we'll finally say goodbye
Inside with pride you survive
Remember, remember

There's one in the middle
Can we run this toll?
What happens tomorrow
Can never be told
It never really hit
Unitl it was written in stone
