Avail

Is it true you don't want to Feel a thing?

Then stay in the underground Remain elusive I'm higher now than when I broke down It's wrong I don't think about you Is it wro ng I don't think about you?

Took a walk to the bridge again last night Gave no thoughts to mistakes I've made I felt cleansed for once in my life The sky was perfect clear I walked home again last night And got a feel ing that I rarely question Rolled right over the thought of a b reakdown And smiled without a care

If I never see you again I'm counting my blessings I'm higher n ow than when I broke down It's wrong I don't think about you Is it wrong I don't think about you?
