

Left Behind

Avalanche City

It's been a long day
Leading up to tell you that
You need to go
I had this in my brain
Long before, you'd ever know

Didn't want out
I've just been reaching for that line
Like I'm searching all the time
And don't you feign surprise
That I just can't let go
When this is done

I won't be coming back
For anything I left behind
And I don't regret a thing
I'll do the same every time
I have your little lies
Spinnin' up in my mind
No I won't be coming back
'Cause you're someone that I left behind
I won't be coming back
'Cause you're someone that I left behind

Was alright yesterday
But still it's just a little bit raw

When darkness comes along
All I see are things that I lost

The full light
Tell me where did you think we'd find
I've been searching all the time
The walls are crumblin' round
And I just can't let go
When this is done

I won't be coming back
For anything I left behind
And I don't regret a thing
I'll do the same every time
I have your little lies
Spinnin' up in my mind
No I won't be coming back
'Cause you're someone that I left behind
I won't be coming back
'Cause you're someone that I left behind

I won't be coming back
For anything I left behind
Ooh, I won't be coming back
For anything I left behind
