Avalon

I count the days
Like grains of sand
Feel them slipping
Through my hand
The fuse is burning
Time is short
I know the path the world is on
I stand as one who's been reborn
There's no debate
Of why I'm here

I know the score
My soul is sure

I've been called
No matter the cost
To win the lost
Called
By the Holy One
Who paid it all
Called
To boldly say
There's only one Name
With the power to save
'Cause I know
Oh, I know
I've been called

How can we say
We love the world
If we hold back
The priceless pearl
The key to life
They need to know

Silence isn't golden when
We've got the truth
But hold it in
No need to wonder
If we should go
'Cause we've been called
No matter the cost
To win the lost
Called
By the Holy One
Who paid it all
Called
To boldly say
There's only one Name
With the power to save
'Cause I know
Oh, I know
I've been called
'Cause I know
Oh, I know
I've been called, I've been called

I know the score
My soul is sure

I've been called
Called
Called
I've been called
Called
No matter the cost
To win the lost
Called
By the Holy One
Who paid it all
Called
To boldly say
There's only one Name
With the power to save
'Cause I know
Oh, I know
I've been called, I've been called
