

Only One

Avalon

In a world that keeps going crazy
In a world where nothing stays the same
Deep in my soul
Somehow I know
That some things never change

There is only one God
There is only one truth
There is only one Name that saves me
There is only one King
That my heart will bow to
My Savior, my love
There is only one
Only one Jesus

So bring your wounds and He will heal them
Bring your chains, He'll set you free
Let the power of your shame
Meet the power of His Name
Let His people sing

There is only one God
There is only one truth
There is only one Name that saves me
There is only one King
That my heart will bow to
My Savior, my love
There is only one
Only one Jesus

There is no one like my God
No one like my God
Nothing is impossible for You
You took my sin away
You left it in the grave
Nothing is impossible for You

In a world that keeps going crazy
In a world where nothing stays the same

There is only one God
There is only one truth
There is only one Name that saves me
There is only one King
That my heart will bow to
My Savior, my love
There is only one
Only one Jesus
