Sacred Ground

Avalon

The dust was stained a crimson red
Beneath the shadow of that tree
The blameless One became our sin
To set the prisoner free

A place of punishment and shame
Now set apart of love displayed
The Savior's blood cascading down
To set the prisoner free

Oh, praise the Name above all names
Jesus, the Lamb for sinners slain
Emmanuel, every knee will bow
To worship You on sacred ground

Three days had passed with pain and fear
For what their eyes had seen
But death could not contain the One
Who spoke the words to be

Three days had passed with pain and fear
For what their eyes had seen
But death could not contain the One
Who spoke the words to be

The final hour of evils reign
When heaven rolled the stone away
His body nowhere to be found
The empty tomb is sacred ground

Oh, praise the Name above all names
Jesus, the Lamb of sinners slain
Emmanuel, every knee will bow
To worship You on sacred ground
On sacred ground

From death to life
From lost to found
You've made our hearts
Your sacred ground

From death to life
From lost to found
You've made our hearts
Your sacred ground

To sin and death
No longer bound
Our rescued souls
Are sacred ground

To sin and death
No longer bound
Our rescued souls
Are sacred ground

Oh, praise the Name above all names

Jesus, the Lamb for sinners slain
Emmanuel, every knee will bow
To worship You on sacred ground
