

So It Will Ever Be

Avalon

No other hand
No other love
No other voice
Could speak to dust
And raise us up
And call us sons
Like You've done

No other throne
No other crown
No other king
We've ever found
Could ever make
The darkness bow
Like You've done

Sovereign you're forever sovereign
Nothing's ever stopped You
You remain the Kings of Kings
Holy You're forever Holy
You stand alone in glory
Above it all
And so it will ever be

No other power
No other name
No other God
Could ever claim
To bring new life
And rob the grave
Like You've done
Like You've done

Sovereign you're forever sovereign
Nothing's ever stopped You
You remain the Kings of Kings
Holy You're forever Holy
You stand alone in glory
Above it all
And so it will ever be

Forever and ever and ever

All blessing
All honor
All glory all power
And so it will ever be
So it will ever be

All blessing
All honor
All glory all power
And so it will ever be
So it will ever be

All blessing
All honor

All glory all power
And so it will ever be
So it will ever be

All blessing
All honor
All glory all power
And so it will ever be
So it will ever be

Sovereign you're forever sovereign
Nothing's ever stopped You
You remain the Kings of Kings
Holy You're forever Holy
Above it all
And so it will ever be

Sovereign you're forever sovereign
Nothing's ever stopped You
You remain the Kings of Kings
Holy You're forever Holy
Above it all
And so it will ever be
