

The Toy Master

Avantasia

Don't you be afraid come and step inside take a look around I'm your holy grail in your candy store to save you from the profound They used to dream in only black and white

Can't you hear them scream drowning in the tide

Out in the cold,
I see water frozen in their eyes
What a sorry sight
I am willing to believe they would pay for a smile

I'm the master of toys
and all you girls and boys are welcome to my wonderland
I'm the angel of joy
And I'm here to paint the void
Welcome to my world

To my dream factory

Say hello to the gentleman with the paint
The deeper you're in the blue the sweeter the sound of your complaints
If only I had a heart it would break – oh sure And I wonder how much more they can take

Out in the cold,
I see water frozen in their eyes
What a sorry sight
I am willing to believe they would pay for a smile

I'm the master of toys
I'm the angel of joy
And I'm here to paint the void
Welcome to my world

I'm dealing in pain and a little Novocaine Welcome to my world, to my toy factory

No more struggle at the classes
No more struggle at the masses
On their knees, conformity
They all ready for a hero
they all flying at zero
It's their turn to crash and burn

No more struggle at the classes

Welcome to my world

I come to bring you pain
And a little Novocaine
