Bloodlust, frenzy
Hatred, fire
To you they're empty
You're the liar

Too much pain (Change the channel)
The truth is hard (Close your eyes)
Let it rain (Wiped away)
Too much pain (Too much pain)
Too much pain (Change the channel)
Too much pain (Close your eyes)
Too much pain (Wiped away)
Too much pain (Too much pain)

Sleep tight, deny
Leave us behind
The voice gets too loud Find your way out

Information streams feeding you with hate
A nightmare in your dreams blackens your portrait
Pictures of the world move before your eyes
The dying will get heard where nobody survives

Sleep like a child
Don't weep, don't cry
The pain's not from here
Don't weep, don't fear

Too much pain (Change the channel)
The truth is hard (Close your eyes)
Let it rain (Wiped away)
Too much pain (Too much pain)
Too much pain (Change the channel)
Too much pain (Close your eyes)
Too much pain (Wiped away)
Too much pain (Too much pain)

The ghosts are just TV
They're not here, they're not free
As long as we sleep
They can't come, so don't weep

Information streams feeding you with hate
A nightmare in your dreams blackens your portrait
Pictures of the world move before your eyes
The dying will get heard where nobody survives

Wake up
Child of denial
Fight back
Tonight we'll shine

Information streams feeding you with hate
A nightmare in your dreams blackens your portrait
Pictures of the world move before your eyes
The dying will get heard where nobody survives
