

Howling At The Waves

Avatar

"What a day to see the beach"
She said to me
"It doesn't matter that it rains"
She said to me
Had a dream last night, a dream about the sea
And I held you, and you said, "Let go of me, oh"

Howling at the waves, we must be strong
Higher, faster, wilder

Climbing on the rocks they threw
Hold me and I carry you
I'm running on all fours
The whole world's turning over, think they wanna shake us off
I'll be strong for both of us
I want a little more
I'll tell you when it's over, and then we'll go again

We were holding on to grass
I think we did
And it cut into our hands
I think it did
Then we made it up the hill, we saw the view
Then the rain turned into snow, to something new, oh

Howling at the waves, we must be strong
Higher, faster, wilder

Climbing on the rocks they threw
Hold me and I'll carry you
I'm running on all fours
The whole world's turning over, think they wanna shake us off
I'll be strong for both of us
I want a little more
I'll tell you when it's over, and then we'll go again

Climbing on the rocks they threw
Hold me and I'll carry you
I'm running on all fours
The whole world's turning over, think they wanna shake us off
I'll be strong for both of us
I want a little more
I'll tell you when it's over

Climbing on the rocks they threw
Hold me and I'll carry you
I'm running on all fours
The whole world's turning over, think they wanna shake us off
I'll be strong for both of us
I want a little more
Don't tell me when it's over
