Soul Prison

Avatar

Obsessive thoughts are coming here to stay
I'm no longer the key to my decisions
Control is falling further away
The sooner I let go, the sooner I'll get a grip
I'm screaming falling calling out your name
If I've had been faster maybe you would have heard me
Well I guess the decision came too late
And now I stand here melting in to clay

Acid rain
Falling
Astral pain
Calling

(Me) to human
(Realms) those human
(Shells) built to
(Hide) us from
(Life) and from the light
(Light) that they
(Hide) deep on our
Caged souls

Lighting strikes over and over again
My heart is all that's left a glowing lump of coal
As I die I'm filled with regret
Things left untold and things I should have said
As a ghost I haunt my own mind
Me - My worst nightmare
Hidden hate and forgotten fears
My end will come with my awakening (Calling)

(Me) to human
(Realms) those human
(Shells) built to
(Hide) us from
(Life) and from the light
(Light) that they
(Hide) deep on our
Caged souls

(Me) to human
(Realms) those human
(Shells) built to
(Hide) us from
(Life) and from the light
(Light) that they
(Hide) deep on our
Caged souls
