

The Meeting

Avatar

You're running through a tunnel
Chasing the forgotten light
You're losing breath you stumble
You'll find nothing but night
You're running from a prison
It's a prison in your mind
You're looking for a reason
To why I'm so close behind

I am your shadow
I'm always by your side
I am a mirror
Showing your hate and fright

You've seen, but can't believe, it
It's written in your face
A fire soon to be lit
No hunting, still I chase
I have some fun to go for
It's time for you to pay
I taste your blood and urge for more
I see you run away

I am your shadow
I'm always by your side
I am a mirror
Showing your hate and fright

You cry but I am laughing
I laugh 'cause you're afraid
You don't have to be screaming
I'm you and you're unsaved
I am your rage that's pounding
I'm bursting through your chest
I love all your sounding
But now you're laid to rest

I am your shadow
I'm always by your side
I am a mirror
Showing your hate and fright
