

Violence No Matter What

Avatar

How hard can it be
(How hard can it be)
After almost a century
(It's almost a century)
For you bastards to agree
(You bastards to agree)
That no one gets to be a fucking fascist?

Run from the pain
Make your escape over mountains of bodies
Towering madness
The hammer commands us to strike

Strike
Strike
Yet another firm believer in that victory is obtained by whoever inflicts the most harm

Violence no matter what
Violence no matter what
Violence no matter what
Violence no matter what

Fight till the end
Praising the name of the master deceiver
The nation can cure her
The hammer commands us to strike

Strike

Violence no matter what
Violence no matter what
Violence no matter what
Violence no matter what, no matter what

Strike
Strike
Yet another strong proponent of an ideology dependent on a promised return to former glory

Violence no matter what
Violence no matter what
Violence no matter what
Yeah
Violence no matter what

Violence no matter what
No matter what
Violence no matter what
No matter what
Violence no matter what
No matter what
Violence no matter what

Violence no matter what
Violence no matter what
Violence no matter what

Violence no matter what

Violence no matter what (what)

Violence no matter what (what)

Violence no matter what (what)

Violence no matter what
