

Lay Me Down

Avatarium

We never said goodbye
Oh holy sacrament
I've honored your ring
With fists that won't repent

Lay me down
Lay me down
Close to you
So near
In the silent ground
And I will hold you
For a million years

For better, worse and war
For this lonely child you wed
Arms will rest forevermore
Green grass wave above our heads

Lay me down
Lay me down
Close to you
So near
In the silent ground
I will hold you
For a million years
