

For Me

AVEC

I'm lost in the rain
Outside
In front of this old, dusty
Room
It's in your eyes
So dark
How could ever have done something like this to us

But time is still on the run
Oh, and may you give me a way to your

No, you don't let me go
No, you won't let me go
And it tears me apart
Oh I'm bleeding my heart just to know that you stood there for me
No, you don't let me go
And you told me I'm not goin' home
And it tears me apart
Oh I'm bleeding my arches
And know that you stood there for me

For a while
I buried my heart of stone
In the arm of the oak tree of far away
From it all
And 'cause of you
I can't cry when I want to
I can't sleep at night
And lock myself in

But time is still on the run
Oh, and may you give me a way to your

No, you don't let me go
No, you won't let me go
And it tears me apart
Oh, I'm bleeding my heart just to know that you stood there for me
No, you don't let me go
And you told me I'm not goin' home
And it tears me apart
Oh, I'm bleeding my heart just to know that you stood there for me

No, you don't let me go
No, you won't let me go
And it tears me apart
Oh, I'm bleeding my heart just to know that you stood there for me
No, you don't let me go
And you told me I'm not goin' home
And it tears me apart
Oh, I'm bleeding my heart just to know that you stood there for me
