

Shadows

AVEC

The room was dark and cold
There was some noises from the old room
And I was sleeping just a little bit longer
And you think you can do what you want
(Oh...)
(Oh... love)

Your eyes were staring into mine
Full of sadness and hope
To reach the other side
We on right, sold into each
The finish line

I lost the love, I lost it all
I was only born to let it fall
So here we are, in the mirror of our past
And the shadows are laughin' at us
Yeah, the shadows keep on laughin' at us
(Oh...)
(Oh...)
(Oh...)
(Oh...)

My mind is locked up in the corner
The candles are burning down and down and down and down and C'mon, C'mon to the deep sea, my dear, oh
C'mon, C'mon, we run, run, run, run

I lost the love, I lost it all
I was only born to let it fall
So here we are, in the mirror of our past
And the shadows are laughin' at us
Yeah, the shadows keep on laughin' at us
