Under Water

AVEC

You told me to let go and all I can do is try
I'm running in circles, tired of keeping my head high
You told me to bury my feelings dead I'm alright
Oh, acting my whole life now I am losing this fight

Let go, let go
Don't try to follow
Let go, let go

And it feels alive
Breathing under water
Trying to hold on and get back on my feet
And it still feels alive breathing under water
While all the fires are burning
Inside of me

You told me don't worry, just stay there, there's no need to hide
But running away always seems so much easier than fight
You told me to drown all my feelings, God damn I tried
But who am I to judge on what's wrong or what's right?

Let go, let go
Don't try to follow
Let go, let go

And it feels alive
Breathing under water
Trying to hold on and get back on my feet
And it still feels alive breathing under water
While all the fires are burning
Inside of me

Me, oh...
Me, oh...

And it feels alive
Breathing under water
Trying to hold on and get back on my feet
And it still feels alive breathing under water
While all the fires are burning
Inside of me

And it feels alive
Breathing under water
Trying to hold on and get back on my feet
And it still feels alive breathing under water
While all the fires are burning
Inside of me
