

When The Lights Go Out

AVEC

I won't let myself do this again
For too long, I've been moving on
Finally I have to understand
I [?]
With a mistaken reality
'Cause you don't give a shit about me
Turning tails and swaying on
While singing out loud, I'm crying alone

I don't wanna love you longer than I've loved myself
That is what you get yourself from somebody else
Don't get it twisted, I feel your desire for me
Baby, you make me feel weak at life
Put me in boxes and treat me like weave
Known each other for years [?]
But I gotta tell you

When the lights go out
When the lights go out
When the lights go out
When the lights go out
And the morning comes
And the morning comes
And the morning comes
And the morning comes
Being all alone
Being all alone
Being all alone
Being all alone
Wouldn't change a thing
Wouldn't change a thing
Wouldn't change a thing
Wouldn't change a thing

Put me somewhere I can really be who I am
Treat me like a woman, also treat me like the man
Show me all these places in between
I assure you it's the best you ever seen
Put me on another level, traveller mind
Look around the corner baby, see what you find
You took your steps ahead of me, now fall back in line
'Cause everything is nothing in the evening of time

Put me in a, put me in a home room
[?] are singing, bells are ringing in mind, I would Go crazy, every day it's amazing how I even could [?] who doesn't understand
What I want, what I am, I'm feeling pretty brand
New me wants no more after sickening love
New me ever, ever wants someone above
After trying and trying and trying [?]

I don't wanna love you longer than I've loved myself

Known each other for years [?]
But I gotta tell you

When the lights go out
And the morning comes
And the morning comes
And the morning comes
And the morning comes
Being all alone
Being all alone
Being all alone
Being all alone
Wouldn't change a thing

When the lights go out
When the lights go out
When the lights go out
When the lights go out
And the morning comes
And the morning comes
And the morning comes
And the morning comes
Being all alone
Being all alone
Being all alone
Being all alone
