

Youniverse

Avelino

They'll crown you then clown you, doubt you then doubt you
Notice, don't shout me, I'll shout you
Focus on yourself
I'm Steve Jobs, unemployed
Buy my mum a house, I'm a mumma's boy
I told the youts in my bits
Don't ever lose if I win
Fuck a relation, rather cruise on my ship
I hope this ain't the Titanic
But fuck it, I'm just something something, I don't write or plan it
Free G ASAP
I'm tryna see major Ps from a flat
Got that Rocky like my name's A$AP
Oh, I was busy chasing dreams till I caught them slipping
Man, I couldn't even see until I saw the vision
Play your position, this God flow'd make you say you're religious
I'm the chosen one and that ain't your decision
It's AV, sold yay, that's Jay-Z
Sometimes I daydream of my flow in the mainstream

But how can I be yours and mine?
How can I be yours and mine? I've been thinking 'bout myself
I'm relying on me, she's lying on me, I'm dying to breathe
How can I be yours and mine?
How can I be yours and mine? I've been thinking 'bout myself
I'm relying on me, she's lying on me, I lie and I leave

I was rapping in Mum's belly
Now I want the belly for Mum, that's the contrary
Fuck everything and run when them cops near me
You can get nicked for a cannon cause of Mariah Carey
I'm scary, I know they're tryna bury my grove
I come from a broken home, that's why I'm rarely at home
But when I am, I'm in the mirror staring at Hov
Go take risks for that cheese, if you ain't daring then don't
Focus on yourself, it's a roller-coaster
Ain't a roller motion in my ends as cold as Nova Scotia
I'm a roper-doper till I'm dead, if we make a toast
You know we're only toasting over bread, that's just how we do
Still check mates even though we're making power moves
If you're powerful, let your power move
Got my dream girl on my mind every time I snooze
I gave her the London Eye, the Eiffel Tower too
Don't cloud the truth, it will set you free
If love is in the air, I'm tryna let you breathe
They've gotta let us in before they let you leave
Cause we come in 4x4, that's an SUV
It's AV, sold yay, that's Jay-Z
Sometimes I daydream of my flow in the mainstream

But how can I be yours and mine?
How can I be yours and mine? I've been thinking 'bout myself
I'm relying on me, she's lying on me, I'm dying to breathe
How can I be yours and mine?
How can I be yours and mine? I've been thinking 'bout myself
I'm relying on me, she's lying on me, I lie and I leave
But how can I be yours and mine?

How can I be yours and mine? I've been thinking 'bout myself
I'm relying on me, she's lying on me, I'm dying to breathe
How can I be yours and mine?
How can I be yours and mine? I've been thinking 'bout myself
I'm relying on me, she's lying on me, I lie and I leave

I won't sleep until I'm in your dreams
Love don't live on my street, no
So sure about my dream
I won't sleep until I'm in your dream
Love don't live on my street, no
So sure about my dream

What's life about?
I don't know, just try it out
We're the last of a breed that's dying out
Rappers that speak, I like my silence loud
New Generation, that's new reputations
I get high then watch my videos, that's view elevation
When you're the one, they wanna put you in a matrix
They're in how I'm innovative, I'm through
You vs me, how? The youniverse is within me
I love bad bitches but love ambition
And I want man's sisters married becoming one-man women
I heard the game's a marathon but I'mma run that sprinting
(But I'mma run that sprinting)
(So sure about my dream)
I found a youniverse in me
