

Desert Oasis

Avenoir

Tried to run from the breeze that carried your voice this spring
Why should I die for a feeling I know won't ever be the same
I can't
But I missed your call, that much I do regret
Now that time has separated, all that's left
I just didn't know what I was gonna hear from you, from you
I do

The most to leave your illusion
Now I find myself returning to nothing
Desert oasis, I been chasing you all year
And I can't be the one to confuse it
I'm guilty, your body's amusing
Is it the music or are we in love?
Oh, I can't trust us again

You turn down the music and look at me contemplating
If this is real or just
The after effects of a battle we both fought through
And your mind's just clearing up
We both know you don't wanna try if it's hard
And if it's easy, you find a different way out
And I just didn't know what I was gonna hear from you (From you
)
Now I do

The most but find your illusion
Now I've found myself returning to nothing
My desert oasis, I been needing you my whole life
But we can't be the ones that confuse it
We're guilty, we find it amusing
'Cause it ain't the music or us being in love
Maybe we're just too broken
