

Lady

Avenir

Lady, you're giving me peace of mind
And I dream of you 'round me every single night
So when you alone, I'm hoping you don't forget you can reach me
We can through go the motions, battle the storm that's in your heart
You know this

So reckless, so restless (But I'm so)
So reckless too, it's true
So reckless (But I'm so), so restless (I know you're so)
So restless, it's true

Crazy is a understatement for what you bring Yet I'm calm before you
When we feel the air the same
And the pressure raise when we're all alone
And I'd like to think that we handle the worst in the world whe n it matters, but if that's true
Would I ever even be with you?

So reckless, so restless (But I'm so)
Looking for something, you risk at all (Lady) I'm reckless (But I'm so), so restless for you (I know you're s o)
So restless for something safe

Take it upon yourself to find a new reason why you'd wanna try
'Cause I lived long enough to know you can't build in a field o f lies
So redirect the main focus
And tell me what keeps your heart alive
I'll be so sure to keep it safe with mine, 'cause

Lady, you're giving me peace of mind
And I dream of you 'round me every single night
So when you alone, I'm hoping you don't forget you can reach me
We can through go the motions, battle the storm that's in your heart

So reckless, so restless
So reckless too, it's true
So reckless, so restless
So reckless too, it's true
