

MORTAL

Avenir

She don't need love to carry on Wakin' up alone at the break of dawn
Dining all alone with solitude
Although she is alone, she knows the truth

I can't cut no more, almost lost my faith Can't believe my eyes, look what you became Why can't I feel you or the words you say?
Just let me close my eyes while you walk away

Everyone, people love loving things that can't love back
Don't believe it, look around, everyone's a slave to that
Empty vessel, hollow soul, lost until the world's your end Would you change what you become? Tell me 'bout the things they did

Everyone, people love loving things that can't love back
Don't believe it, look around, everyone's a slave to that
Empty vessel, hollow soul, lost until the world's your end
Would you change what you become? Tell me 'bout the things they did
