

WHO DO U LUV

Avenoir

I'm trying lady, I've been trying lately
Showed you love but you don't get it
And baby honestly, I know your honesty's compromised when you feel my touch
Showed you love, not enough
Stood me up like I wasn't nun Now I'm good, I'm doing fine

I don't mind girl, I don't mind Close the door, shut the blinds
My feelings cold when you're hurt inside
Ooh, we can break down anytime girl
Ooh, just call me whenever you're ready
Ooh, you never let me down girl, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down

Ooh, we can break down anytime girl
Ooh, just call me whenever you're ready
Ooh, you never let me down girl, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down
Tell me what you got
Let your spirit unfold more
As you get close
What do you mean baby?

Just show me something more useful than the physical
You're a sin, not a prayer I still have to come and see you later
I don't wanna front I'm aware that you don't want this love
Now you're here, come inside It's too late for me to hide my pride

Ooh, we can break down anytime girl Ooh, just call me whenever you're ready
Ooh, you never let me down girl, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down
Ooh, we can break down anytime girl Ooh, just call me whenever you're ready
Ooh, you never let me down girl, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down, down
