

Wine drunk, door shut
Our eyes locked up
We brought a vibe to the party
Made it weird for everybody
Tension, nothing said
On the edge of the bed
It's bad timing and it's selfish
But lookin' at you, I can't help it
We really 'bout to go and do this in my best friend's room
Honestly this shit is long overdue

But if it means we're closer in bed tonight
If it means I know you deeper inside
If it means we're gettin' what's wrong with us right
Then I'll scream my head off and stay up all night, baby
I'm down to fight
I'm down to fight

Go ahead, yell at me
Air it out, let it breathe
If we don't know the broken shit
Then how the hell will we know what to fix? (Yeah)
Get uncomfortable, bring up the past
Relationship with your dad
I ain't tryna judge you
I'm just tryna learn how to love you
You never really know how much you don't wanna lose someone
Until you almost do

So if it means we're closer in bed tonight
If it means I know you deeper inside
If it means we're gettin' what's wrong with us right
Then I'll scream my head off and stay up all night, baby
I'm down to fight
I'm down to fight

I'ma say some shit that you ain't gonna like
And I might hear some shit, I know might make me cry
But if it means we're keepin' us alive
I'm down to fight

If it means we're closer in bed tonight
If it means I know you deeper inside
If it means we're gettin' what's wrong with us right
Then I'll scream my head off and stay up all night, baby
I'm down to fight
I'm down to fight

I'm down to fight
I'm down to fight
