

The Breeding Process

Aversions Crown

I despise you
Everything you do
Inexplicable

Blind and powerless
Suffering begins
Abduction

You are taken, forsaken
Stripped of your clothes
Comatose

You awaken to a presence that reeks of hatred
Malevolent, ancient, immortal, ageless
Blood will be spilled
Bodies sacrificed

Condemned to die through experiments of the fourth kind
Eternal suffering

Tied down, limbs spread out, impregnation begins
Bleeding intestinal seeping
Your screams are smothered now

Tearing as I'm inserting reproductive organs into the human womb, procreation tomb

I despise you
Everything you do
Inexplicable

Blind and powerless
Suffering begins
Abduction

Tied down, limbs spread out, impregnation begins
Bleeding intestinal seeping
Your screams are smothered now

Tearing as I'm inserting reproductive organs into the human womb, procreation tomb

The monolith revealed its purpose
You were all born as our servants
No God will save you from it

Hurt for me, my victims, as I torture your every breath
The smell of rotting flesh keeps me alive in this place of death

Suffer, procreate, and die
This has become your life
Suffer, procreate, and die
This has become your life

I despise you
Everything you do
Inexplicable

Blind and powerless
Suffering begins
Abduction

The God you cry to doesn't breathe
He won't help you finally see
This is all that's left, just you and me

I will grow an army of hybrids
Half-human, half-something of nightmares
Tearing you from the inside
As you await death for the first time
For the first time

The breeding process is complete
I will create, reanimate
The God you cry to doesn't breathe
Hung long ago, by our species
