

Breakup Over Breakfast

Avery Anna

We'll break up over breakfast
It's cool, calm and collected
We'll talk until the ice in both our water glasses melted
We'll say, "It's for the better"
And, "I'll love you forever"
You'll walk me to the car and say goodbye
Yeah, right

I'll see two headlights in my drive in the middle of the night
I'll hear knock knock on my front door, say you wanna make it right
Fight in the kitchen, break dishes, and try to fix what wasn't right
Maybe in another life

We'll break up over breakfast
It's cool, calm and collected
We'll talk until the ice in both our water glasses melted
We'll say, "It's for the better"
And, "I'll love you forever"
You'll walk me to the car and say goodbye
Yeah, right

(Yeah, right)

You'll come and get your things but I know that really means
You'll start a fight and make me cry
I'll close my eyes and wish that we would

Break up over breakfast
It's cool, calm and collected
We'll talk until the ice in both our water glasses melted
We'll say, "It's for the better"
And, "I'll love you forever"
You'll walk me to the car and say goodbye (Goodbye)
Yeah, right

Yeah, right
Yeah, right
