I heard love ain't no good
Til you give it away
Once you start talking titles everything starts to chance
Immediately mentalities
Start getting twisted, start falling like the leaves
I learned from my past take my time
Ain't no sense of rushing if I ain't behind
U-Haul with a truck, holding my stuff
My time, my love and energy
Then you ain't enough

See I won't even dive in
If I know internally I can't swim
Cause it can get complicated if we playing

So ATM
I just wanna spend
One night with you, give you something that you won't forget
This may not be love
But my shit ain't pretend
I just wanna see if you qualify
A-A-A-ATM
Is it the real thing or is it just a fling
At this moment, moment
ATM

Nothing's ever the same
But fuck all them childish games
Have you all up in your feelings then you can't find your way
I don't want to go there again
No no no no no no

I won't even dive in
If I know internally I can't swim
Cause it can get complicated if we playing

So ATM
I just wanna spend
One night with you, give you something that you won't forget
This may not be love
But my shit ain't pretend
I just wanna see if you qualify
A-A-A-ATM
Is it the real thing or is it just a fling
At this moment, moment
ATM

I won't even dive in
If I know internally I can't swim
It can get complicated if we playing, yeah

If we like each other's company then we will see if we can be
If it's just a quick fuck then we'll know
