I heard if I hit it two times then I like her
We accomplished that in under one hour
I'm guessing that I love her
This ain't a joke
Baby I'm serious, this ain't a hoax, no
I'm putting all my eggs in your basket
I ain't afraid of them cracking
Cause I'm handling you with caution and passion

Oh I don't see nothing wrong
With giving your heart away to someone
Who deserves it
If it's worth it
Don't fuck it up
Don't even bet on your luck
If you're gonna play a game
Then you better grab a controller baby

It it it ain't ok to play with ones heart
If you ever get the thought stop at the star
Always be genuine
From beginning to the end
I ain't trynna steer you wrong
I'm just trying to put you on

Oh oh oh oh oh

It it it ain't ok to play with ones heart
Play with ones heart
Play play play with ones heart

I care about you more than anybody else right now
Your affection is infectious and it's better than the rest is baby I will ne ver count on
Another woman to give me
The things that you give me
As long as you genuine genuinely love me

Oh I don't see nothing wrong
With giving your heart away to someone
Who deserves it
If it's worth it
Don't fuck it up
Don't even bet on your luck
If you're gonna play a game
Then you better grab a controller baby

It it it ain't ok to play with ones heart
If you ever get the thought stop at the star
Always be genuine
From beginning to the end
I ain't trynna steer you wrong
I'm just trying to put you on

It it it ain't ok to play with ones heart
If you ever get the thought stop at the star
Always be genuine

From beginning to the end
I ain't trynna steer you wrong
I'm just trying to put you on
