

Chains

Avi Kaplan

All of these chains
Weighing down on me
Weighing down
All of these chains
Weighing down on me
Weighing down

My mind's a haze
With all this pain
And I can't change a thing
Lost in this maze
I can't find a way
I can't break my spirit free

All of these chains
Weighing down on me
Weighing down
All of these chains
Weighing down on me
Weighing down

Yeah, I drift away
To a brighter place
That I close my eyes to see
And then someday
I think that things will change
But I'm losing my belief

All of these chains
Weighing down on me
Weighing down
All of these chains
Weighing down on me
Weighing down

I'm down on my knees
I need some relief
Some quiet and peace
I've been here before
Tethered and torn
I won't take anymore

All of these chains
Weighing down on me
Weighing down
All of these chains
Weighing down on me
Weighing down

All of these chains
Weighing down on me
Weighing down
All of these chains
Weighing down on me
Weighing down
