

Full Moon

Avi Kaplan

Oh, sun sinks in the ocean again
Way down, deep in his bay he waits
Resting his head 'til day
But until then
But until then

Full moon
Why don't you stay?
Full moon
Why don't you stay?
Why don't you stay?

Full moon
Stretching its arms to the sky
He climbs into the night
He flies, wondering why he shines
Only tonight
Only tonight

Full moon
Why don't you stay?
Full moon
Why don't you stay?
Why don't you stay?
