Aviana

The colours fade and all the roads lead me down
We tried to stay
But nothing makes a loud enough sound
For us to stay

(Not loud enough for us to stay)

You made me doubt my whole existence
And there's only an empty shell of a man that I used to be
And now I'm gone letting all just spin out of control

Slow down, love
And I'll begin to Come undone
Slow down, love
And we'll begin to
Fade away, my love

It's been a year since the sun kissed my face
And all I feel is the cold embrace of solitude
Your solitude, my love

Slow down, love
And I'll begin to Come undone
Slow down, love
And we'll begin to
Fade away, my love

Watch me break
Watch me lose all hope
And never let me go
Bleed me dry
Look as I fade away
Chew all the skin from my bones

Watch me break
Watch me lose all hope
And never let me go
Bleed me dry
Look as I fade away
Chew all the skin from my bones

Watch me break
Watch me lose all hope
And never let me go
Bleed me dry
Look as I fade away
Chew all the skin from my bones
