

DELIRIUM

Aviana

Save for me, something beautiful
Keep it alive, to make it miserable

Save for me, something beautiful
Keep it alive, to make it miserable
(I am here to stay)

Stay awake, the nightmares drained my will to live
(My will to live)
Still in a haze, as the other worlds start to spill
(I can feel the flood)

I can no longer fight off, the faces of evil
Coming at me from inside, my wilderness
Save for me something

(Beautiful)

I feel the light from the shadows
They're pulling me in
They're calling my name
I am aware

I'd never fight so hard for me
It was all for you, it will always be you
As I'm loosing my battle
To myself, for myself
You are all I see, the only one I see
