

EVERMORE

Aviana

"Eagerly I wished the morrow
From my books surcease of sorrow
Sorrow for the lost Lenore
For the rare and radiant maiden whom the angels name Lenore
Nameless here for evermore"

Death came to see me
To talk once more
Longing our plans about the love
For the dying shore
And as I gaze into his eyes
I fall in love once more
By his vore
In the evermore

Consciousness
Of reality (Reality)

It seems like everything is
Leaving me
But I feel his grace
As he whispers in my ear

Write me in blood
A letter of love
Write me a love
Letter to death
As I feel my time has come to end

Some place called home (Some place called home)
Into your arms I seek
Some place I've found (Some place I've found)
Somewhere I belong

My
Consciousness
Of reality

It seems like everything is
Leaving me
But I feel his grace
As he whispers in my ear
Oh Lord
(Whispers in my ear)

And as I start to see again
I feel the love fading away
It's like he always wanted me
But I'm a coward
I won't become the grey

I won't become the grey

I won't become the grey

Death came to talk once more
And this time I listened

I felt it in my
I felt it in my bones

Some place called home (Some place called home)
Into your arms I seek
Some place I've found (Some place I've found)
Somewhere I belong

Death came to see me
And this time I'll follow
