Rage

Rage against the dying of the light

I am not coming back for a while
I see myself drowning in embracing daylight
Sinking deeper than ever before
I never carried my cross, I never suffered through it

Oh God, what have I done to deserve this?
I never asked for this
My path was paved for me long ago
Now I'm drowning

Oh God, I'm drowning
I can't take it anymore
Oh God, I'm drowning
I can't breathe anymore

Stay with me for a while
Catch me up to speed
I don't wanna die alone
I don't want to die here

Drunken on my own believes again
I'm losing faith in him
Troubled waters and earth stops to spin
Am I alive or is this just a scheme?

Oh God, I'm drowning
I can't take it anymore

Oh God, I'm drowning
Thanks to your selfish, rageous plans
I've lost my faith in you
Drowning
I've lost my faith in you
