

The Affliction

Aviana

At the end of the day, we are the slaves
All eyes on today
The only peace we will find is in the grave
We're not the first, no we won't be the last to deny
To defile a never ending thirst so we do what we must
We defile, your biggest mistake was to trust in us
Another secret untold, behold as consequence becomes the goal

Infect me, spread the disease

What would you do if you we're a king?
Lord of the peasants, the vile beings
Untrustworthy souls driven by fear
The only truth that we know (that we'll ever know)
Is the one that we have been told

Light up the sky, hide their knife in their back again
Blinded eyes, believe all the promises made

The only truth that we know (that we'll ever know)
Is the one that we have been told
