

WORLDS PULSE

Aviana

Pray for me
I'll deny it
Let me taste your breath
Show the way
To eternity my love

And as I thought we saw the end
As you hid your face from me
And I saw how we got used to be
You and the devil placed a seed

You and the devil placed a seed
You and the devil placed a seed
You and the devil placed a seed

Surviving all the motion
Until I've lost my breath
I feel the child within me
Kicking and screaming
"You're in this for free"

And as this loops around me
I feel the worlds pulse again
And walls lean in to listen
As I my lungs fill to the brim with life
I can speak in the tongue of the
I can speak in the tongue of the

Damned
In all of it's glory
I taste it all
Damned
The walls lean to listen
The pain still remains in
Your shame remains
You speak in the tongue of the
You speak in the tongue of the damned
You speak in the tongue of the

Burn it all
Justify
Justify what kills me
Burn it all
As it all disappeared in front of me

Say what you're doing to me
It's like the world renewed me

Burn it all
Burn it all to unholy ground

This loops around me
Again
Again
Again

As the fire casts its shade

The deepest shadows burns my skin
You are all that I have
You are all that I need
I feel the worlds pulse again
And the walls lean in to listen
As my lungs fill to the brim with life
I can speak in the tongue of the

I can speak in the tongue of the
I can speak in the tongue of the
I can speak in the tongue of the
I can speak in the tongue of the...
