

Blood Pact

Aviators

You're a whisper in the dead of night
My fell beast that hides away from light
Pursuing with a monstrous, cold allure
You're god's unspoken
Dead and broken
Couldn't want you more

So dance with me and drink the moonlight
I took a vow to share the long night
A lovers' blood pact long ago
To follow as far as you'll go
I've cut down every hunt to burn you
When life raises the stakes I'll stand true
I'd go to war to feed your heart
'Til death do we depart

I could never go a day without
Your enchantment makes me want to shout
I'll be your victim if you'll be my guide
Tonight
Pleasant curses
Carnal forces
Pull my heart to you
Beloved familiar
Turned cold killer
Oh for love the things we do

So dance with me and drink the moonlight
I took a vow to share the long night
A lovers' blood pact long ago
To follow as far as you'll go
I've cut down every hunt to burn you
When life raises the stakes I'll stand true
I'd go to war to feed your heart
'Til death do we depart

They call us new blasphemers
Ignorant of the dreamers
Who wished to wed in sin
For the wicked time we're in
A crimson house of horrors
Of forbidden wine enjoyers
With a taste for blood and thrill
It's a love for which I'd kill

So dance with me and drink the moonlight
I took a vow to share the long night
A lovers' blood pact long ago
To follow as far as you'll go
I've cut down every hunt to burn you
When life raises the stakes I'll stand true
I'd go to war to feed your heart
'Til death do we depart
