

Dreamwalker

Aviators

If you've never moved
Then what have you proved
You don't know the cost
Of what you have until it is lost

Lights fading
Still waiting
You've lost her
Dreamwalker

If you can reveal
The world that is real
You're living a dream
That's less than it seems

Lights fading
Still waiting
You've lost her
Dreamwalker

She passed by you
Never a chance to
Tell her how you feel
Now it's too late
Hurt by cruel fate
Couldn't face what is real

Lights fading
Still waiting
You've lost her
Dreamwalker

Lights fading
Still waiting
You've lost her
Dreamwalker

If you've never moved
Then what have you proved
