

The Path Home

Aviators

Spent my days
Watching and waiting
Killed my faith
Participating
In this crusade
Still masquerading
As the lie
That we're creating
Blinding lights
Leave me in silence
Hopes and dreams
Taken with violence
Right and wrong
Have made alliance
Now I will
Turn in defiance

Passing thoughts leave me alone
And I'm on the path home

No, I won't stand down
I won't give out
I'm taking a chance despite my doubt
I'm not gonna lose
With so much to prove
I'm coming home to you

Passing thoughts leave me alone
And I'm on the path home

Passing thoughts leave me alone
And I'm on the path home
