

Into The Rest

Avion Roe

Will you bury me
Are you there with me
Where the twilight ends the violence
And your scared to leave with me
What I feel inside
How do I confess
Push your habit into me
And your fear into the rest

Into the rest
Until it's all that I have left
Into the rest, into the rest
Until we had enough

Can you imagine love
And how is it ever enough
Can you imagine love
And how is it ever enough
Can you imagine love?

Will you carry me
Are you there with me
Where the skyline fills the silence
And you swear to me, to me
That it's in your eyes
And it's in my chest
Push your habit into me
And your fear into the rest

Into the rest
Until it's all that I have left
Into the rest, into the rest
Until we had enough

Can you imagine love
And how is it ever enough
Can you imagine love
And how is it ever enough

Promise you'll stay with me and I'll never let you fall
I've heard the climb is so much better than the ending of it all
Let me begin by saying something clever
You and I will never ever part
Forget how it ends
Let me show you how it starts
It starts like this

Can you imagine love
And how is it ever enough
Can you imagine love
And how is it ever enough
Can you imagine love?
