

Would You Notice

Avion

Follow you in the shadow of your stride
I'd wait an hour just to see you smile
Should I change all the pain
To reveal all I've contained?
Would you feel the way I do?

But if I was on fire
Would you notice?
And would you feel desire
If I showed it?
Would you notice?

I could wait for perfect words or circumstances
I listened in just to hear your name
All your loveliness that shines
Is the same as what's inside
Would you feel the same way too?

Someday soon
When it's me and you
I won't be the stranger
In your life

But if I was on fire
If I was on fire
If I burn with desire would you notice?
