Broken

AViVA

Why you always gotta be so stubborn
Stopping in the headlights like you're choking
Wanting to be right, but you got problems
Yeah we all got problems
I'm not here to solve them

Tell me why you gotta be so stubborn
Using up my time with all that moping
Thought I gave a fuck, gotta be joking
Looking for some wings
You better keep on hoping

It's like you're puppets on a string
One jerk to send you dancing
While I'm standing over here
Saying

I won't dance 'cause you told me to
Never find me jumping through hoops
See the cracks, fixed with super glue
It's alright 'cause I'm not broken

I won't dance 'cause you told me to
Never find me jumping through hoops
See the cracks, fixed with super glue
It's alright 'cause I'm not broken

Why you always looking for a way out
Scared of every mirror in your glasshouse
Looking for the light like you were promised
I'm not here to solve this
I'm just being honest

Why you always looking for a way out
You can eat your words out in the playground
I'll be outta sight, nothing to say now
Look where you are, uh huh bet you're real proud

It's like you're puppets on a string
One Jerk to send you dancing
While I'm standing over here
Saying

I won't dance 'cause you told me to
Never find me jumping through hoops
See the cracks, fixed with super glue
It's alright 'cause I'm not broken

I won't dance 'cause you told me to
Never find me jumping through hoops
See the cracks, fixed with super glue
It's alright 'cause I'm not broken

It's like you're puppets on a string
One Jerk to send you dancing
While I'm standing over here
Saying
