

This world is one scary place
I'm afraid I can't contain the rage
You don't know but always like debating
Your hollow heart needs something to believe in

You thought you'd see me broken, I gotta disagree
'Cause when everyone is choking I'll fight to keep words free
Knocked me in the face when I asked you a question
There's no justification, the circus is raging
The circus is raging
The circus is raging
Yeah, the circus is raging

Na na no justification
Yeah, the circus is raging
Na na no justification
But this is not the end

Shadows creeping 'cross your face
Can't hide the hate, guess it's too late
Pretend to care but you don't see it
Your words are empty but you think that you mean them
You tried to fool me once but hey I'm Always stronger than I seem
Behind your bright smile you are screaming
In this ring of chaos where fear reigns supreme
Just shut up, I'm not getting through to no one
Don't wanna hear it no more, I'll start slamming the doors
But all your screaming's ignored, just gotta silence the roar
Love to hate me, love to hurt me, 'cause you're still insecure

You thought you'd see me broken, I gotta disagree
'Cause when everyone is choking I'll fight to keep words free
Knocked me in the face when I asked you a question
There's no justification, the circus is raging
The circus is raging
The circus is raging
Yeah, the circus is raging

Na na no justification
Yeah, the circus is raging
Na na no justification
But this is not the end
But this is not the end

Na na no justification
Yeah, the circus is raging
Na na no justification
