

Devil's Ballet

AViVA

Was I just another obstacle laid in your way? (Let it go)
Pick me up just to throw me in the trash, you're so cliché (cliché)

I'm such a waste (waste, oh)
An everyday dose for what you crave
The Devil's ballet (ballet, oh)
You spin me 'round your fingers
When you want to play (when you want to play)

And I'm coming after you for revenge (coming after you for revenge)

Who are you to question me? I thought you knew your place
Begged me for a chance and now you're throwing it away
The Devil's ballet
You know people pay with their life to play
To play my little games
So don't you dare say my name
The Devil's ballet
(Hush)

Fooled me once but never fool me again (fool me again)
Oh, oh
You're the devil in a new red dress (in a new red dress)
Ooh-ooh, and I'm coming after you for revenge (for revenge)

Why, would you claim to love me
If I would be nothing
Nothing to you at all?
You can pretend that you'll find me
Tell all your friends you are hunting
You know why I let you fall

The Devil's ballet
You asked to play, yeah yeah (yeah yeah)
Oh, oh
You're the devil in a new red dress (in a new red dress)
Fooled me once but never fool me again (fool me again)
And I'm coming after you for revenge
